SIX BODIES RECOVERED.

Thirteen Men Believed to Have Perished in a Mine.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 25.-Thirteen miners were killed and great damage was done by an accidental explosion of gas Tuesday afternoon in coal mine No. 20 at Bonanza, Ark., twelve miles from this city. At nightfall only six of the victims had been recovered. When the explosion occurred there were about 150 men in the various shafts. All escaped without injury except the thirteen who were employed in entry K, the scene of the explosion. The force of the explosion was so terrific that timbers were torn from the wells of the passages for several hundred yards at the mouth of the The passages were so completely obstructed that the work of rescue was tedious in the extreme and several hours were consumed before the first body was found.

It is believed that the gas accidentally was ignited by a miner's lamp. MYSTERY CLEARED UP. Gus Marks Confesses to Participating in Murders at Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 25 .- The mystery surrounding the hold-up of the cashier's office of the Chicago City railway last August, during which two of the employes of the office were shot and killed without warning, was cleared up Tuesday by the confession of Gus Marks, who was arrested last Saturday for the murder of Detective John Quinn, whom Marks shot down while trying to escape arrest. Harvey Vandine and Peter Neidermeier are named by Marks as his accomplices in the car barn murder. According to Marks' story the three men went to the office of the railway company for the purpose of robbery Marks says that when he ordered the men to throw up their hands they obeyed, but Neidermeier burst in the shooting. Vandine then broke down the door with a sledge hammer, Marks says, and went into the office and took all the money he could find, in all $2,250 was secured, and Marks says the money was evenly divided between the three men. The next day Marks and his two companions went to Denver, then to Cripple Creek and in a week came back to Chicago, since when, according to Marks' confession, they have been implicated in a number of hold-ups and shooting affairs. Marks confessed that in addition to the two murders at the car barns he murders since that time. All of these crimes were similar in character to the killings in the barn, being the robbing and shooting of men on the street and in saloons.

SAW BATTALIA'S BODY.

Two Young Men Near the Scene When He was Killed.

Minneapolis, Nov. 25.-Lewis Rokem and Arthur Nelson, young men who live near the Franklin avenue bridge in Minneapolis, saw the body of Salvadore Battallia lying on the bridge last Wednesday night.

The boys had not reported this to the authorities, but last night acknowledged to a detective that they had seen the body lying on the bridge before the alarm was given, and Rokem said that he had heard somebody running away.

Neither, however, would admit that he had seen any one close to the body as they had been reported to have told their friends.

These friends say that the boys had been visiting on the East Side until about 9:30 o'clock, when they started

As they reached the east end of the bridge, walking on the right hand side, they saw two men lifting something between them that appeared to be heavy and carrying toward the railing. The men evidently heard them approaching, for they dropped their bundle and ran in their direction, but on the opposite side of the bridge. The young men kept on and saw the body of a man in the roadway at about the center of the bridge and noticed blood scattered about.

Terror-stricken they broke into a run and went home. They did not report to the police, fearing to be mixed up in the horrible affair.

The police believe this story will throw considerable light on the case.

SIX BODIES RECOVERED.

Thirteen Men Believed to Have Perished in a Mine.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 25.-Thirteen miners were killed and great damage was done by an accidental explosion of gas Tuesday afternoon in coal mine No. 20 at Bonanza. Ark., twelve miles from this city. At nightfall only six of the victims had been recovered. When the explosion occurred there were about 150 men in the various shafts. All escaped without injury except the thirteen who were employed in entry K, the scene of the explosion. The force of the explosion was so terrific that timbers were torn from the walls of the passages for several hundred yards at the mouth of the entry. The passages were so completely obstructed that the work of rescue was tedious in the extreme and several hours were consumed before the first body was found.

It is believed that the gas accidentally was ignited by a miner's lamp. Many who escaped with the aid of others summoned from nearby shafts immediately set about clearing away the men who were entombed had survived the explosion. By nightfall six bodies had been recovered and the work was still in progress. It is now considered certain that all of the entombed choice steers, $3.75@5.00; common to miners have perished.

Glasgow, Mont., Nov. 25.-Passenger train No. 3 on the Great Northern was wrecked at Lanark, about 109 miles east of here, at 5 p. m Tuesday. Engineer Hoey and his fireman, Artie Taylor, were instantly killed. Seven coaches were ditched. The wreck was caused by stock being on the FIGHT WILL BE RENEWED.

MacGinnis and Heinze to Oppose Standard Oil Control of Copper.

New York, Nov. 25 .- Rumors of the defeat of an effort made by the Standard Oil-Amalgamated Copper combine to bring about a compromise in the war with the Montana Purchasing company, represented by F. Augustus Heinze and John MacGinnis, were prevalent Tuesday. Leaders of both factions were assembled in this city, but no settlement was effected and the war will continue. John MacGinnis, leader of the Heinze forces, who has been in this city for more than a week, will leave for Butte, Mont., today, to renew the fight.

The directors of the Montana Ore Purchasing company met Tuesday. After the directors had dispersed Mr. MacGinnis said:

'We will continue the fight against Standard Oil control of copper. I wish to deny emphatically that the interests I represent have participated in any negotiations looking to a truce. I have not been nor had communication with Mr. Scallon."

That laughing success, "Reuben in New York," is said to be given to our theatre goers for one night, Friday Nov. 27, at the Brainerd opera house. The old adage that nothing succeeds like success is most aptly demonstrated in the hit made by this clever piece. It is bright, clean, full of comical situations, clever dialogue and sparkling over with fun; the characters are in able hands and every chance for a laugh is, you may be sure, taken advantage of. Reuben, in his trip, gets into some amusing situations but always manages to slip out of them. Elegant scenery is carried, pleasing specialties are introduced during the action of the play and altogether there is not one dull moment from the rise of the curtain until the the moderator.

With the sermon Sunday morning at 10 to $. Rev. A. H. Carver, late of Brainerd, assumed his duties as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Luverne. Proof of the soundness of the considerations which induced the congregation to extend the call to him were furnished in the admirable discourse which he delivered on the occasion of his first appearance as resident pastor. Mr. Carver prefaced his sermon with some sensible remarks on the subject of the relations of pastor and people, and while he refrained from promises he expressed the confidence that those relations would be mutually profitable to each and to the cause which they represented.

The new pastor is a graduate of Westminster university, Pennsylvania, and Union Theological seminary, New York, the latter the leading educational institution of the Presbyterian denomination for the training of ministers. "REUBEN IN NEW YORK."

That laughing success, "Reuben in New York," is said to be given to our theatre-goers for one night, Friday Nov. 27, at the Brainerd opera house. The old adage that nothing succeeds like success is most aptly demonstrated in the hit made by this clever piece. It is bright, clean, full of comical situations, clever dialogue and sparkling over with fun; the characters are in able hands and every chance for a laugh is, you may be sure, taken advantage of. Reuben, in his trip, gets into some amusing situations but always manages to slip out of them. Elegant scenery is duced during the action of the play and altogether there is not one dull moment from the rise of the curtain until the the moderator.

Auspicious Circumstances.

The following from the Rock County Herald in reference to Rev. A. H. Carver, formerly of this city, who has accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church at Luverne will be of in-

With the sermon Sunday morning at 10 to 5. Rev. A. H. Carver, late of Brainerd, as sumed his duties as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Luverne. Proof of the soundness of the considerations which induced the congregation to extend the call to him were furnished in the admirable discourse which he delivered on the occasion of his first appearance as resident pastor. Mr. Carver prefaced his sermon with some sensible remarks on the subject of the relations of pastor and people, and while he refrained from promises he expressed the confidence that those relations would be mutually profitable to each and to the cause which they represented.

The new pastor is a graduate of Westminster university, Pennsylvania, and Union Theological seminary, New York, the latter the leading educational institution of the Presbyterian denomination for the training of ministers. All of the years of his ministry have been spent in Minnesota. Prior to accepting the charge at Brainerd Rev. Carver was pastor of the Lakeside church at Duluth. At Masonic Hall Last Night When Masons and Their Families Enjoyed a Program and Banquet.

There were some very appropriate and sort of opening or dedication of the hall since the recent elaboration, something over $1,500 having been expended in redecorating, repainting and refurnishing. There was a very large turnout of Brainerd's best people and it was an auspicious evening, a fitting "opening" of the beautiful hall.

Edward Crust was master of ceremonies and the program which followed was a very pleasant one. Graham's orchestra was present and played several very popular selections, Rev. Richard Brown delivered an address, full of good installment house in city.

INTERESTINGOPENING EXERCISES thought and good cheer, the Æolian quartette rendered some excellent selections, and vocal solos were given by Judge Alderman, Mrs. J. C. Atherton gave a prano solo and Mrs. E. W. Crane jury at the next term of court, bail begave a whistling solo.

MADE GOOD "IMPRESSION."

REMINISCENT Two Well Known "Typos" in this City Get Married and Were Able to Render Thanks Yesterday.

> On Thanksgiving Eve two well known and popular printers of this city were united in marriage and today the fraternity is "smoking up." It was a double wedding too, and Rev. S. W. Hoover offi-

Mr. James W. Pinkney, of the job department of the DISPATCH, was united in marriage to Miss Elsie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Young, of Crow Wing. Miss Young is quite well known in this city, having been with A. David Capistrant, of Centerville, M. Opsahl, the photographer for some time. Both young people are popular among a large circle of friends and congratulations are being extended. They have provided a home and will go to housekeeping at once on Pine street in N. E. Brainerd.

The other young couple to take matrimonial vows was Mr. J. C. Brown and Miss Pearl Borders. Mr. Brown was for a long time connected with the DISPATCH country were in a primitive state, as he and "held down a case." For the past was here as early as 1870 when the Nor- | few months he has been working at the thern Pacific had just completed its painting trade. Miss Borders is the daughter of Vet Borders, who lives out near the "narrows" at Long lake. She has been working in the city for some time and is well known here. They will live near Long lake this winter. Both young people have the best wishes of a large number of friends.

The double wedding was a private affair and was performed at the First Baptist church parsonage.

RAILROAD GOSSIP

According to reports from St. Paul, the officials of the Northern Pacific road are going to adopt stringent rules on Jan. 1, regarding the consumption of intoxicants, whether on duty or off.

It is stated that an order will be issued within a few days after the return of the party of officials who went to the coast with President Howard Elliott, to the effect that any employe seen drinking intoxicating liquors at any time will be subject to discharge without further

Speaking of the expected order of the Northern Pacific road, one official in St. Paul is reported to have said:

"Rules against the use of intoxicants tend to increase the efficiency of the employees. Strict discipline is not irksome to the men who take pride in their record and who have the interests of the road at heart, and it helps keep the men who care less about such things in line If it is worth while to prohibit the use of intoxicants while on duty, I do not see that it is not equally worth while to and Mrs. G. D. LaBar. Miss Kauffman held to await the action of the grand prohibit intoxicants entirely. If the men know they can drink when they are ing fixed at $300. The father stated off duty, they are less likely to observe strictly the rules while on duty. It is a good rule."

Local representatives of the Northern Pacific road have heard nothing of the contemplated order.

Walker Whiteside.

Mr. Walker Whiteside's fine production of Lieut. Gordon Kean's new comedy, "We are King" is scheduled for presentation in this city next Tuesday, Dec.

1. From reports which have come in from time to time it would seem that this artist has secured a dramatic prize in his new play. Not only in the dual role in which Mr. Whiteside displays his remarkable talents, lies all the interest of the play, but the author has given to the other roles strength and completeness in dramatic drawing and has produced such a splendid plot of unflagging interest that the comedy as a whole, bids fair to occupy one of the foremost places on the American and English stages for years to come. The usual Whiteside good taste in the staging and costuming of the play may be anticipated.

The concert given by the Reidelsberger company on Wednesday evening was one of the best that has been heard in this city in many years and the company should have been greeted with a larger house. The Modern Samaritans, under whose auspices the concert was given in this city, netted a neat sum.
